

Bodecia Book Club!

Extra Read

Inferno by Dan Brown

A new Dan Brown novel – INFERNO – hit the shelves recently. So of course, it had to be read asap! As usual our hero, Robert Langdon, is in for a rough time solving a mystery. The protagonist this time is slightly unusual in that he dies in the prologue – but the problem he leaves behind is both chilling and thought provoking.

Langdon wakes up in a hospital in Florence – but doesn't know how he got there. From then on, it's a race against time to solve the mystery. He is both helped and hindered by two women and a clandestine organisation.

Some chapters read like guide books for the art industry in Florence – but don't let that put you off. It's a cracking good read, full of twists and turns – including one even I, with all my years of cracking crime books, never saw coming!

Some people would say that Dan Brown writes in an almost formulaic manner – mystery, hero, beautiful woman, chase through Italy (why is it always Italy?) but that's fine by me. In my humble opinion, this is the best Robert Langdon story yet – and somehow, a more believable storyline than previous books. This is a book that will make you think about things in a different way – I found it very thought provoking.

Enjoy!

@bodeciabookclub

The Bodecia Book Club

www.bodeciabookclub.weebly.com

bodeciabookclub@hotmail.co.uk

Don't forget the first rule of Book Club!